Welcome & Thank You

On behalf of the team at The Mill, we would like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank you for your support during these challenging times

Despite the challenges posed by 2020, we are proud to have been able to develop our programme in an ever-changing context, enabling us to continue providing classes, workshops and live performances to the communities of Banbury and beyond.

Our Creative Learning programme of classes and workshops has been able to take place in person when restrictions have allowed, and we have been delighted with your feedback that our precautions have made this a safe and enjoyable experience.

Our new online courses have also proved popular with subjects such as watercolours, flower arranging and drawing. In addition, our partnerships with Age UK, Sanctuary Housing and Active Oxfordshire have enabled us to deliver online activities to diverse groups from across our community providing a much appreciated creative outlet.

Our Work Station deal proved immensely popular with those looking for a new and safe place to 'work from home' in our Café

Bar during the autumn. Furthermore, we were delighted to welcome Lyngo Theatre to perform live at The Mill in December 2020; their festive family show, Snow Play, was a huge hit with audiences both in our socially distanced theatre and live streamed to your homes.

As restrictions have steadily lifted, it has been wonderful to begin to welcome more audiences back to The Mill for live performances and we look forward to sharing with you details of our upcoming programme over the next few months and into the autumn.

Highlights include The Rite of Spring by award-winning choreographer Seeta Patel, coming to The Mill in November. Taking the South Indian classical dance form of Bharatanatyam with its intricate rhythmic footwork, Seeta has created a compelling East meets West retelling of the iconic Rite of Spring, showcasing some of the finest Indian classical dance talent set against Igor Stravinsky's sumptuous score.

Dance fans will also love Sleeping Beauty, a breath-taking ballet experience for the whole family. Dazzling dancers, Tchaikovsky's stunning score and gorgeous costumes introduce this glittering classical ballet to a new generation of audiences.

Our theatre programme continues with SESSIONS by Ifeyinwa Frederick – a raw, funny, bittersweet deepdive into the complexities of masculinity, depression and therapy, presented by the highly respected Paines Plough and Soho Theatre companies.

Finally we are delighted to announce that The Very Hungry Caterpillar Show will be dazzling audiences and faithfully bringing to the stage Eric Carle's timeless stories from 30th November through to 11th December. Be sure to book early to avoid disappointment.

With all this and more, we very much hope to see you back at The Mill soon.

We've implemented new measures to make your visit to The Mill more comfortable

E-tickets: For the majority of events, you can now choose to receive your order as e-tickets. No need to print or collect at the Box Office – simply present your e-ticket on your phone or mobile device! Not only does this help reduce our environmental impact, but it also streamlines your arrival for a smoother experience.

Pre-ordering: Thanks to our new ordering system, you can now pre-order interval drinks, saving you the queues.

At-seat ordering: Alternatively, use our new app to order drinks directly to your seats!

Gallery Bar: For busier events we've created a second full service bar in the Gallery area in order to reduce queuing and congestion – why not try a glass of fizz, a chilled beer from Heineken or one of our delicious ales from Hook Norton Brewery?

All information is correct at time of writing and all activities comply with prevailing COVID-19 restrictions and industry best practice. Please see our website for the most up-to-date information.

THE ADVENTURES OF BO PEEP

*Little Bo Peep has lost her sheep,
And can't fall asleep without them!*

Watch the adventures of Bo Peep unravel as she tries to rescue her woolly friends! Counting her sheep always sends Bo Peep off to sleep by bedtime, but with no sign of them yet she'll be up all night searching. Bo Peep needs you and your family's help to save her little lambkins from danger in time for bed!

"a truly magical performance"

Praise for Knuckle and Joint's previous children's production, The International Story Quest.

Award winning, Knuckle and Joint and Churchill Theatre Creative Learning have teamed up to bring you a brand new and magical adaptation of well loved nursery rhyme, Little Bo Peep, to The Mill. It is a perfect theatre introduction for your little ones with an interactive story and sensory learning. Look out for a flock of woollen puppets, original music and sheep themed silliness.

Recommended for 2-6 year olds.

SIMON EVANS: The Work of the Devil

Simon Evans' last show, Genius 2.0 (★★★★★ "A Masterclass" The Scotsman) provided an hilarious analysis of the departure of any visible sign of intelligence from modern life. But his new show raises the stakes, with his usual excoriating views of a world on fire given a perspective shift from personal revelations that turned his world upside down this year.

"A gripping and, ultimately heart-warming tale... rich with Evans' wit and caustic observation."

★★★★★ The Scotsman

"You expect a high standard of stand-up from this veteran performer. But in sharing something so deeply personal, he's exceeded what seemed to be his full potential... I'd expect it to get even better when it goes out on tour. Outstanding stuff."

★★★★★ Chortle

Simon Evans is the star of Live at the Apollo, Mock The Week, BBC Radio 4's The News Quiz, The Unbelievable Truth and Simon Evans Goes To Market. THE ANIMALS & FRIENDS

Featuring from the original Animals: John Steel and Mick Gallagher (The Blockheads), plus Danny Handley and Roberto Ruiz.

In 1964 a wave of new energetic rock and roll swept over the youth of the world. On the crest of this wave were The Beatles, The Rolling Stones and of course The Animals. From the banks of the River Tyne came the North East's offering; a brand of rhythm 'n blues that the whole world seemed to grasp greedily.

The Animals were the second British band to top the American charts after The Beatles with the now multi-million selling and legendary anthem, House of the Rising Sun.

The band subsequently achieved over twenty global Top Ten hit records, many of which gained the Number One slot in various parts of the world. The enduring influence and breadth of appeal of The Animals' music continues ever onwards.

FIN TAYLOR: So My Wife...

We want stand-ups to speak truth to power. But lately no one agrees on what's true or who's in power.

What are comedians to do in the age of post-truth and identity politics? Is it possible to make everyone laugh when half the crowd thinks comedy's too PC and the other half thinks the opposite? What do we talk about after this year when nothing happened and the only thing that did, everyone's sick to death of?

I'll tell you what we do.
We go back to the old ways.
We put on a suit,
And we talk about our wife.

As seen on Live At The Apollo, 8 out of 10 Cats, The Mash Report and Roast Battle, Fin has also written for The Roast of Alec Baldwin on Comedy Central US.

KATHRYN ROBERTS & SEAN LAKEMAN

Kathryn Roberts and Sean Lakeman have long established themselves as one of the UK folk scene's most rewardingly enduring partnerships.

2020 marked 25 years of making music together for this popular wife and husband duo. To celebrate and acknowledge this milestone, the couple will revisit and reinterpret songs which span their career.

From the early days of folk supergroup 'Equation' through to the current release 'Personae' with a nod or two along the way to their extra-curricular musical adventures, the evening promises a whistle-stop tour through their artistic journey to date.

"It's folk music for the modern age."

THE RITE OF SPRING

Award winning Choreographer, Seeta Patel reimagines this iconic ballet in the powerful classical Indian dance style Bharatanatyam. Igor Stravinsky's avant-garde score stunned Paris audiences when it debuted in 1913 and has been hugely influential ever since.

Discover a transformative re-telling of this pagan folk story through intricate rhythmic footwork, expressive prowess, geometric and dynamic movements, delivered by world-class performers.

Set to be one of the most exciting flirtations between East and West in current times, the production looks beyond notions of the exotic and orientalist perceptions of Eastern classical arts.

The evening will showcase some of the finest Indian classical dance talent across the globe in an exciting bridge between two very technical, powerful and evocative art forms (Western classical music and Indian classical dance).

THE WOMAN WHO COOKED HER HUSBAND

Banbury's leading local theatre company present a dark, culinary comedy serving up greed and revenge aplenty.

Hilary and Kenneth have been married for nearly 20 years. Middle-age approaches and Kenneth finds himself in the arms of another woman. Laura embodies all that is missing from his married life but Kenneth's fling gets out of hand and his world spirals into deceit and lies. He is forced to leave Hilary. The only problem is that Laura can't cook and Kenneth mourns the loss of his Sunday roasts. When Hilary invites them both for dinner, Kenneth has no idea what delicacies Hilary has planned

This not your usual play. It is very unusual. It is funny, quirky, dark and shocking – a wife rejected, a mistress scorned and a husband who wants his cake and eat it. Played out against an Elvis soundscape – with beehives, brothel creepers, jiving and lots of food – the play will be performed cabaret-style and we encourage our audience to dress in 1950s costume and join in with the jiving!

ART BY POST

The Southbank Centre's landmark Covid-19 initiative Art by Post celebrates the power of creativity in a touring exhibition of more than 600 pieces of artwork created in lockdown.

The exhibition – both physical and digital – showcases artworks from the Art by Post community of 4,500 participants from across the UK who were at risk from social isolation and digital exclusion during the pandemic, and highlights the positive impact of art and creativity on health and wellbeing.

Although the exhibition has been shaped by the isolating experience of successive lockdowns, the artworks are a powerful celebration of creativity and resilience.

The exhibition is developed in partnership with National Academy for Social Prescribing (NASP), and curated by Persilia Caton.

YOGA FOR BEGINNERS
with Louise Willis

In this class you will be encouraged to develop at your own pace by listening to your body as you move through a guided practice. Working with a series of repeated postures and eventually, sequences, you will develop a sense of 'rightness' for your own body as you also develop strength and flexibility.

Suitable for beginners as well as those returning to yoga, this course is an opportunity to join in-person classes in a small, supported group and have some fun!

Mini Masterclasses with Rachel Cronin
All classes held via Zoom

WATERCOLOUR TREES

Spend two hours with experienced watercolour artist Rachel Cronin painting trees and mixing greens.

If your green woodland paintings often end up muddy and overworked, then this class is for you. You will be shown how to create vibrant spring greens and sombre September hues that remain transparent and vivid, as well as creating foliage using flicked paint, splattering with a toothbrush and printing with sponges - basically using anything to hand but not your paintbrushes!

Dates & Details

Date Tuesday 28th September
Time 6pm-8pm

Fees

COLOUR MIXING FOR ACRYLIC LANDSCAPES

Do your acrylic landscapes often end up looking confusing and predominantly brown? In this two-hour mini masterclass, you will be shown two examples of an acrylic landscape colour palette; one that works with moody and stormy greys and earth colours, and another that focuses on bright saturated greens and blues.

You will receive lots of colour mixing advice, as well as guidance on how to layer your landscapes so that your colours remain clean and intentional.

Dates & Details

Date Tuesday 19th October
Time 6pm-8pm

Fees

TALK ABOUT DANCE

with Miranda Lawrence

Join us for a unique new course where we will explore Seeta Patel's Rite of Spring. We'll learn about aspects of the making of the work and prepare our own questions about it, and how we might experience it as audiences.

Led by independent dance dramaturg Miranda Laurence and choreographer Seeta Patel, this will be a fun, discursive session giving an insight into the creative process of making dance. No specialist dance knowledge is needed. Each session will have some commonalities, but will focus on a different theme so you can attend both or just one.

In the first session we will focus on comparing the spectator's experience when looking at (visual) art, and when watching dance. We'll ask what we expect art and dance to communicate through images, and how we make sense of what we see.

In the second session, we will explore the music of Stravinsky and will hear from Seeta about her choreographic approach working with the score. We'll think about how music might change the way we watch or experience dance.

In both sessions we will consider cultural context, exploring the nuances of experiencing artforms from different or unfamiliar cultures.

CREATIVE WITH CLAY

with Sally Davis

This workshop offers an introduction to the world of clay modelling using two different mediums. The first is an air-dry clay that has similar properties to traditional clay, where you will learn how to create a 2D wall plaque. If time allows, we can also explore 3D basic animal formation.

The second half of the workshop concentrates on Polymer clay, a man-made product that allows the artist to create delicate sculptures, keyrings, jewellery and much more. With guidance from the tutor, you will create a decorative jam jar lid and also learn how to create basic 3D animal shapes.

Both mediums are a great way to make personal gifts for friends and family.
