Welcome to our Summer 2022 Brochure!

We are delighted to be able to share our upcoming season with you and hope you will enjoy browsing through our latest brochure. With thrilling live performances, creative classes and workshops and a fantastic programme of exhibitions in our Gallery, there really is something for everyone to enjoy.

As we reflect on the last couple of years since the UK first went into lockdown, we really can't thank you enough for your support throughout such a challenging period. We are delighted that we are once again able to present a full programme for you to experience safely, and exceptionally grateful for the response of our audiences over the last few months demonstrating first-hand why live entertainment, arts and culture are so important and needed more than ever.

We continue to celebrate the very best from the world of dance as we welcome Yorke Dance Project back to The Mill for an evening celebrating Sir Robert Cohan's final work live on stage and film, featuring dancers from the Royal Ballet and Martha Graham Dance Company in Connecting to Cohan (14th May).

Another wonderful performance for families to enjoy is Sarah & Duck's Big Top Birthday (6th August). Bursting with all the charm from the BAFTA award-winning CBeebies show, Sarah and Duck's enchanting world is brought to life by the team behind last year's hugely popular production of The Very Hungry Caterpillar Christmas Show.

Our comedy programme continues with world-class stand-up by Gary Delaney (28th July), Chris McCausland (8th & 9th September) and Maisie Adam (16th September) – along with a special performance by Adam Kay: This Is Going To Hurt (19th & 20th August).

With so much more to discover, we hope you enjoy finding out more about our Summer 2022 Season. Thank you for all your support, and we very much hope to see you at The Mill again soon!

Adventure Lectures:

Simon Parker: Cycling 3,500 Miles around Pandemic Britain

Variety

7:30pm Monday 11th April

£13

Originally from Oxfordshire, Simon Parker is an award-winning travel writer and broadcaster who has reported from well over 100 countries by the age of 34 for the BBC, The Telegraph and Amazon Prime. In this multimedia presentation of short films, photos, audio clips and anecdotes he talks about cycling 3,427 miles around 'Pandemic Britain' during 2020 and 2021.

He travelled to the furthest corners of Britain, including Shetland, Scilly, the Highlands, Cumbria and the North York Moors to find out how the pandemic had impacted people of all backgrounds. This is a ground level portrait of Britain, with dozens of unique stories.

This is a fascinating story that you won't want to miss!

Liza Pulman: The Heart of It

Music

7:30pm Tuesday 12th April

£25 | £22 Members

A sneak preview of Liza's new show prior to London premiere!

After wowing sell-out audiences with her highly acclaimed West End tour de force Liza Pulman Sings Streisand, Liza returns with her brand-new show The Heart of It.

Once again in the company of her band, Liza rediscovers and reimagines timeless classics and lost gems that have no business being lost, with a diverse and eclectic range of influences through Michel Legrand, Irving Berlin, Randy Newman, Judy Collins and a host of other iconic artists.

Sharing anecdotes rich in warmth and humour, Liza will have you laughing one minute and crying the next in an evening designed to both break your heart and make it sing.

Liza is also one third of the hugely successful satirical comedy trio Fascinating Aida with whom she sells out theatres nationwide.

Los Pacaminos:

30th Anniversary UK Tour

Music

7:30pm Thursday 14th April

£27.50

Placing themselves squarely in the Americana genre that is fast gaining popularity, Los Pacaminos must be the first Tex-Mex band to have formed in the UK.

Growing from an idea put forward by solo artist Paul Young, the band was formed in 1992 to appease Paul's desire to be once again a part of a band à la The Q-Tips, pick up a guitar again, and not be the centre of attention.

Although initially setting out only to play the Tex-Mex style they'd previously heard by artists Ry Cooder and the Texas Tornados, a lot of other border music has crept into the mix over the 28 years they have played together.

The Christians

Music

7:30pm Saturday 16th April

£28

Renowned for an endless string of soulful yet socially aware hits: Forgotten Town, Ideal World, Born Again, Harvest for the World, What's in a Word, Hooverville, Words, Father, The Bottle and many more.

The Christians enjoyed huge acclaim in the late 80s and early 90s both in the UK and Europe. Still headed by enigmatic lead singer Garry Christian (who very much deserves the Daily Mirror's description of him as having 'one of the finest voices in pop') who has only gained in vocal stature (and wit) over the years!

The band are enjoying a revival, currently touring successfully in the UK and Europe, and embarking on a huge UK Tour playing their well-known back catalogue and one or two favourites selected from newer albums.

Catch them at The Mill and find out why Chris Evans said 'it was the best gig I've ever been to.'

Double Bill:

Glenn Moore & Rob Auton

Comedy

7:30pm Thursday 21st April

£13

Join us for a double bill of stand-up comedy with Glenn Moore and Rob Auton!

Edinburgh Comedy Award nominee Glenn Moore is a comedian, actor and one of the best and most prolific joke writers in the country.

Glenn is a regular face on TV, having appeared on Mock The Week (BBC), Rob Delaney's Stand Up Central (Comedy Central) and The Stand Up Sketch Show (ITV2).

Rob Auton is an award-winning writer, actor and podcaster, named the 'Brian Cox of Comedy' by the Guardian. Rob has written eight hit Edinburgh Fringe shows, which have led to nationwide tours and television/radio appearances. In 2020, Rob started The Rob Auton Daily Podcast, which went on to amass over two million listens and win a gold award for Best Daily Podcast at the British Podcast Awards.

Dirty Tattooed Circus

Variety

7:30pm Friday 22nd April

£16 | £13 Members

Age Guidance: Strictly 18+

Two dangerous Irishmen doing dangerous things for a laugh. An adult cabaret starring Ireland's fun-est circus performers: Martin Mor, and Logy Logan. If Motorhead had sex with Cirque Du Soleil, this is what you'd get. Strictly adults only!

WARNING: This show contains two big bearded Irishmen performing acts of real danger and stupidity.

'This show is truly a tour de force of strange circus and comedy skills' (StageWhispers.com.au).

'Dangerous and hilarious... just how we love our circus' (Clothesline Magazine, Australia).

Los Endos: Ultimate Genesis

Music

7:30pm Saturday 23rd April

Los Endos: Ultimate Genesis have been perfecting the performance of the music of Genesis for 15 years, amazing audiences with the subtle and intricate majesty of progressive rock at its very best.

Over that time the band has toured with tributes to whole albums and famous tours from the seventies.

For 2022, they are inspired to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the release of the seminal Genesis album Foxtrot. Simply Foxtrot will include a performance of the whole album, including the masterpiece Supper's Ready together with a feast of Genesis' finest creations. It's going to be great!

Deeper Purple

Music

7:30pm Saturday 30th April

£18

International tribute band Deeper Purple return to the UK from across the world to deliver the highest quality tribute to a classic rock giant.

Back on the road as a Highway Star and guaranteed to take you back to the classic 1970s with memories of a Child in Time, the music of Deep Purple has influenced generations of Rock music fans through classics such as Smoke on the Water.

So, if you like your music loud and proud it's time for a Black Night at the Deeper Purple show as they deliver the most authentic tribute to these classic rock giants!

Double Bill:

Sophie Duker & Travis Jay

Comedy

7:30pm Thursday 5th May

£13

Join us for a double bill of stand-up comedy with Sophie Duker and Travis Jay!

Sophie Duker's in town to tell jokes, break hearts and marinate her new show in Banbury's unique flavour. Not getting a ticket for this would be silly. As seen on 8 Out of 10 Cats (E4), Mock the Week (BBC2) and more, Sophie was nominated for the Best Newcomer award for her Edinburgh Fringe show, Venus, and won the 2021 Funny Women Best Comedy Writer Award.

Travis Jay is a stand-up comedian, actor and radio presenter and Leicester Mercury Comedian of the Year nominee. A phenomenal live act, Travis has performed to sold-out crowds at the Bloomsbury Theatre and West End Palladium Theatre, and performed alongside Dave Chappelle for Dave Chappelle and Friends.

U2UK

Music

7:30pm Saturday 7th May

£18

This year U2UK celebrate their 20th Year Anniversary Tour, recreating the most captivating moments of U2's live tours which have earned U2 their reputation as 'The World's Greatest Rock Band'.

U2UK's shows are a two-hour-plus celebration of U2's history, featuring tailored lighting scenes, costumes and video playback to recreate the moments that fans loved the most about U2's live tours over the past 40 years. Songs spanning U2's entire career are played with immense passion, including favourites like Beautiful Day, With or Without You, Streets and Vertigo. A night not to be missed!

The Lancashire Telegraph

The Fureys

Music

7:30pm Wednesday 11th May

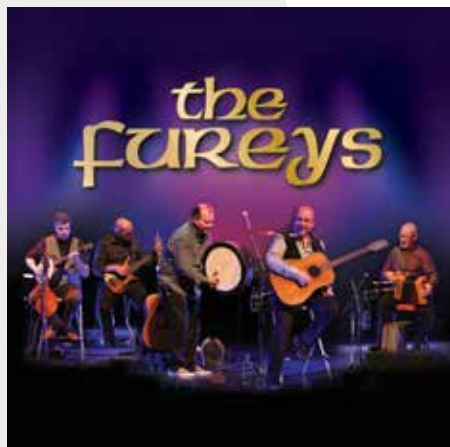

£25

Legends of Irish music and song, The Fureys return for their 17th concert at The Mill. The band are renowned for their hit songs I Will Love You, When You Were Sweet 16, The Green Fields of France, The Old Man, Red Rose Café and From Clare to Here.

The oldest of the brothers, Eddie Furey left home in 1966 and travelled to Scotland at the time of the great folk revival, where he shared accommodation with then unknown folk singers Billy Connolly, Gerry Rafferty and Alex Campbell.

In 1969 with his brother Finbar, he was the special guest for the Clancy Brothers and Tommy Makem throughout the USA and Canada. In 1971 he moved to mainland Europe where he toured for seven years. Dave Stewart from the Eurythmics has credited Eddie with teaching him his first chords on guitar.

Banbury Cross Players present Agatha Christie's Spider's Web

Local Amateur

7:30pm Wednesday 18th-
Saturday 21st May

£13.50 | £12.50 Concessions
(No concessions Friday/Saturday)

Banbury's leading local theatre company present Spider's Web by Agatha Christie.

Clarissa, second wife of diplomat Henry Hailsham-Brown, is adept at spinning tales of adventure for the bored diplomatic circle. When a murder takes place in her drawing room she finds live drama harder to cope with. Worse still, the victim is the man who broke up Henry's first marriage.

Desperate to dispose of the body before her husband arrives with an important politician, she enlists the help of her guests. Clarissa's fast talking places her in some hair-raising experiences as she comes to learn the facts are more terrifying than fiction!

A conscious parody of the detective thriller, Christie delivers a unique blend of suspense and humour. Tension and laughter come equally in this intricate plot of murder, police, drug addicts, invisible ink, hidden doorways & secret drawers.

Yorke Dance Project present

Connecting to Cohan

Dance

7:30pm Saturday 14th May

£17.50 | £14.50 Members

An evening celebrating Sir Robert Cohan's final work live on stage and on film including a discussion with guest artists on how the work was made and the legacy that remains.

Robert Cohan created his final work Afternoon Conversations with Dancers almost entirely over Zoom.

Set to music by Nils Frahm and Ólafur Arnolds, these five intimate choreographed conversations tell personal yet universal stories of isolation, loss and survival with Cohan harnessing the power of dance to express the triumph of the human spirit.

Created during lockdown, Cohan utilised the time of isolation to film each solo on location to create a series of portraits with the dancers.

Lockdown Portraits is now a film of seven solos directed by acclaimed documentary maker David Stewart.

Dancers from Yorke Dance Project, The Royal Ballet and Martha Graham Dance Company embody Cohan's unique choreography, movement that speaks to us all.

"It's as if the dancers' essence is being released from within"

Join Daphne's Flight on their unmissable return flight to the stage promoting their highly anticipated 3rd studio album, On Arrival.

Crossing a huge range of topics and genres, blending folk, blues, jazz and pop all woven together with striking harmonies and supported by a range of instrumentation and percussion.

The music of Daphne's Flight is a magical layering of sensitivity, beauty, experience and empowerment. Their songs are thought provoking, uplifting, empowering and relatable. They continue to inspire audiences with the warmth, energy and sheer joy they bring to their performances.

While Christine Collister is unable to join them, Chris While, Julie Matthews, Melanie Harrold and Helen Watson are delighted to welcome into the fold Miranda Sykes (Show of Hands) on vocals and double bass, adding yet another exciting new element to the band.

China Crisis

Music

8pm Saturday 4th June

£25

China Crisis are Eddie Lundon, Gary Daly, Jack Hymers (keys) and Eric Animan (sax).

Eddie and Gary are the founder members of the band which started in Kirkby, Merseyside back in 1979.

China Crisis found major success in the UK in the 80s with five Top 40 singles, ten Top 50 singles and three Top 40 albums including Flaunt The Imperfection which was the first work (but not the last) produced for the band by musical icon Walter Becker (Steely Dan).

The band also had chart hits across Australia, Europe and the Americas with a string of hit singles, including King In A Catholic Style, Christian, Working with Fire and Steel, Black Man Ray and Wishful Thinking.

They will be performing these classics and more, alongside tracks from their latest album, Autumn in the Neighbourhood, on their new tour.

Let's All Dance present

The Princess & The Pea

Family

11:30am & 2pm Wednesday 1st June

£12

Age Guidance: Suitable for all

When a young Prince is in search of a bride, his mother, The Queen, is on the lookout for a real Princess. But after several months the Prince has not met anyone he likes.

One night, a young woman turns up on the steps of the palace, wet through from a huge storm. The Queen takes one look at her muddy clothes and bedraggled hair and does not believe she is a real Princess. So that night the Queen sets the young woman a test.

In true fairytale style the young woman passes with flying colours and wins the heart of the Prince with her spirit and determination.

This gorgeous new production mixes Let's All Dance's signature crystal clear narrative, fantastic dancing, beautiful costumes and lovely music to enthrall children and families.

A charming show and a great message to never judge a book by its cover!

My Dear Old Things: An Evening with Henry Blofeld

Variety

7:30pm Friday 24th June

Being confined to the pavilion for the past couple of seasons has given Henry time to reconnect with his Norfolk roots and reflect on a truly extraordinary life. This reflection inspired the online film, At Home With Henry, and this new theatre show.

In My Dear Old Things, Blowers recalls his days as a young England hopeful, how an Eton bus knocked him off his stride - and his bike - recoiling from a career in the City to work as a cricket journalist before finding his way into the TMS box.

Backed by film and rare personal pictures on our big screen, My Dear Old Things is an absolute treat for the cricket connoisseur and a wonderfully engaging evening for all.

The Rollin' Clones

Music

7:30pm Saturday 25th June

£26

"Keith Richards cannot be killed by conventional weapons" - Del Preston, Wayne's World 2.

We're choosing to believe this is true. How else could you explain the fact that despite fifty years of death, drugs, destruction and falling out of coconut trees, the greatest show on earth is still on the road?

While not quite of the same vintage, The Rollin' Clones have been entertaining crowds across the country for over seventeen years, distilling the show down to a pure hit of rock 'n' roll, with a chaser of sequinned Glam.

From the early days of the rhythm and blues, through to the excesses of the 70s, The Rollin' Clones' rock 'n' roll show is a faithful interpretation of the biggest band ever's greatest hits.

"Without a doubt the most exciting tribute to the Rolling Stones... Outstanding" The Daily Mail

Something About George: The George Harrison Story

Drama

7:30pm Thursday 30th June

£20 | £17 Members

'All Things Must Pass', they say. Well, George Harrison's name will live on forever. From the creators of Something About Simon – The Paul Simon Story, a brand-new show that will answer the question "where does life take you after being in the greatest band in the history of the world?"

Something About George: The George Harrison Story tells the truly remarkable tale of one of music's most understated icons.

Featuring beautiful songs like My Sweet Lord, Something, and Handle With Care, the show includes incredible solo material and music from rock n' roll's greatest supergroup, The Travelling Wilburys - not forgetting more than a few Beatles' classics along the way.

From heartbreak to hedonism and songwriting to success, Something About George will show you a life that was anything but quiet.

Lollypops & Moptops is a must-see show for all 50s and 60s music fans! It's a trip down nostalgia lane for those that can remember the 50s and 60s first time round, and a fantastic night out for those who want to experience and missed out on the days of Lollipops and Moptops.

Join funny man Alan Mosca, formerly of Freddie & The Dreamers and the former compère of the 60s touring show The Sensational Sixties Experience, as he retells the stories of yesteryear with song and a touch of comedy. Rave on with Buddy Walker as he brings back to life the look and feel of Buddy Holly – who can forget hits like Oh Boy and True Love Ways, plus many more? Also featuring National Music Tribute Award Winners The Temple Brothers and the awesome Dreamers (formerly Freddie & The Dreamers) as they recreate classic hits.

Pure class, nostalgia and fun for all the family – the must-see show for 2022!

A showcase of music performers from across the UK!

EMSP is a music coaching company, specialising in 1:1 vocal and piano coaching of musicians of all ages, backgrounds, and levels of experience. Most EMSP lessons take place online, and therefore our students are based far and wide across the UK, coming together once a year for our one night only Showcase. We welcome you to join us this summer on what is set to be a night to remember!

Simon Goodall & The Bourne Again Shadows

Music

7:30pm Saturday 3rd September

£21 | £19 Members

Simon Goodall & The Bourne Again Shadows are widely acclaimed as the most authentic sounding Cliff/Shadows tribute act (even Sir Cliff has said so!).

With Cliff classics like Summer Holiday, The Young Ones and Please Don't Tease; and Shadows' instrumental hits such as Apache, Wonderful Land and Foot-Tapper, you will be tapping your feet down memory lane!

Chris McCausland: Speaky Blinder

Comedy

8pm Thursday 8th
& Friday 9th September

£20 | £18 Members

Age Guidance: 16+

Star of the Royal Variety Performance, Would I Lie to You?, Have I Got News for You, QI, and Live at the Apollo... One of the UK's top stand-ups Chris McCausland is on tour with a stand-up show about life, family, and loads of other nonsense as well!

Tour extended due to exceptional demand!

"A joke heavy show with gags a plenty"

The List

"Passionate and rib-tickling. An illuminating, heartfelt performance.

Highly recommended!" EdFestMagazine

"Proper stand-up, honest, straightforward, b*lls-out funny" Chortle

Sledgehammer

Music

7:30pm Saturday 10th September

£15

80s tribute band Sledgehammer are bringing 3 hours of non-stop 80s classic pop and rock to The Mill!

Featuring music by the likes of Erasure, Duran Duran, Frankie Goes to Hollywood, Dead or Alive, The Human League and many more from the decade of musical decadence.

Sledgehammer are known for their energetic shows and guarantee to get you singing and dancing. They promise the best night out since Freddie Mercury and Queen stole the show at Live Aid in 1985!

Maisie Adam: Buzzed

Comedy

8pm Friday 16th September

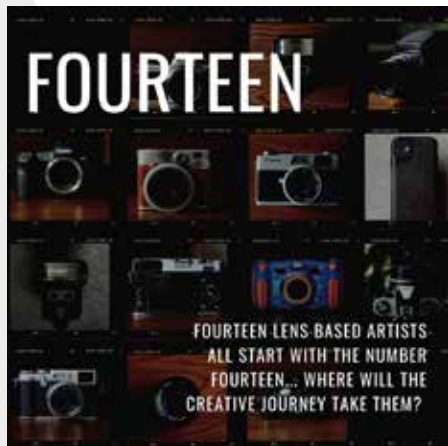

Exhibitions

Are you an artist and interested in displaying your work in our gallery? For more information, please contact emma.hiorns@themillartscentre.co.uk

Fourteen March – April

“Fourteen” is an ArtsLab project from The North Wall Arts Centre in Oxford; a collaboration between The North Wall and 14 early career female photographers, facilitated by Philippa James, and part of the Photo Oxford Festival 2021. We are delighted to be able to extend the life of this exhibition to mark International Women's Day at The Mill.

This exhibition uses the number “14” as its catalyst and is curated by the group to include up to three final works by each artist. The artists are: Alice Oliver, Charlotte Foster Lill, Claire Francis, Elina Medley, Flavia Catena, Francesca Provenzano, Laura Boffin, Leah Gordon, Mariasanta Tedesco, Nell Darby, Philippa James, Sarah Attwood, Sian Gourlay and Wendy Aldiss. More works by each artist can be seen on The North Wall's website.

Artweeks: AmyVik presents: Graphic Migration

May - June

The work of AmyVik evokes memories and nostalgia through the medium of relief printmaking. Alongside new pieces, AmyVik presents a selection of artworks from co-collaborators from her previous place of residence, Mexico City. Come and experience this exciting collection, made across an eclectic mix of physical and personal landscapes.

Student Showcase

 June – August

Watercolours, acrylics and pencil drawings sit side by side with the work of mixed media artists and jewellery makers in this vibrant and varied display. Diverse and vibrant, this is a must-see show.

Textile Showcase

 August - September

The Mill is proud to present a diverse showcase of work by students of our popular Textiles classes. We run three regular textiles workshops aimed at all ability levels. The exhibition is a culmination of a years' worth of project work.
